Day 5 – Wednesday, July 25, 2018 – Pomona

10:00AM-12:00PM

Lecture: Intercultural Communication

What can we learn about ourselves by reviewing the research about cultural differences East and West? Many theoretical approaches regard Asia and the West to be the dominant contrastive cultural traditions. This class will explore the features of those differences and help you to communicate better by knowing some of the differing norms for behavior and communication.

2:00PM – 4:00PM

Lecture: Innovation & Entrepreneurship in the U.S.

Learn about the culture of Innovation & Entrepreneurship in the U.S., and how that makes the U.S. a leading country in today's world.

Day 6 – Thursday, July 26, 2018 – Pomona

10:00AM-12:00PM

Lecture: Toxic and Intoxicating Leadership

Are there styles of leadership which would be considered toxic in any culture at any time? What are the cultural, historical and contextual apologies for bullies and tyrants? What should followers do? Students will deepen their understanding of communication theory to sharpen their sense of what makes a “good” leader. What are the features which stand out in any culture or any time or any situation? The class will look at historical leaders to consider the differing forces of culture, gender, warfare, geography and climate in the formation of good leaders. How do peoples make it through tough times intact?

2:00PM-4:00PM

Lecture & Activity: Team Building

For any team to succeed, 8 or so essential roles must be carried out with leadership appropriate to each. Learn about these roles, how individuals change roles or take on more than one, and then based on each team's experience and each individual's self-assessment, all roles will be distributed among each team's 5 or so members. Students will then cluster in new temporary teams according to self-assessment insights and role assignments. These teams will be formed each with a distribution of styles. The activity will culminate with a fun and friendly competition. The kit of materials for the final project will be distributed to each team.
